Welcome to GreatBritishKids.com & SouthWalesKids.com!

You've probably noticed some changes. Over the last few days we've upgraded the site so that it's even safer than it was before. There have been a few problems, but we're working through them and everything is getting back to normal now. Thanks for staying with us, we'll be better than ever very soon.

What does the site look like?

The screenshot shows the Great British Kids Cyber-Mentoring website. At the top left is the logo for 'RESPONSIBLE SOCIAL NETWORKING GREAT BRITISH KIDS .COM'. The main heading is 'Welcome to Cyber-Mentoring', followed by a brief introduction: 'We're kids who might be able to answer questions that you can't ask anyone else. Your question is private between you and us. Click whoever is online, use the filter boxes to find who you want, or just ask us all.' Below this is a text input field with the prompt 'Write your question in the box below'. To the right of the input field is a search bar with the placeholder 'Enter key to search cyber mentor' and three dropdown menus: 'Either', 'Any School', and 'Ask first available'. Below the search bar is a 'Page: [1]' indicator. The main content area features a yellow box for a selected mentor, 'Mentor2', who is a 'Welsh speaker 16 years old'. The mentor's profile includes a purple smiley face icon with a crown and a small orange circle. There is an 'Invite' button below the mentor's information. At the bottom of the page are logos for 'CLICK CEOP Visit ceop.police.uk', 'ChildLine 0800 1111', and 'SAMARITANS'. A small version of the Great British Kids logo is visible in the bottom right corner, mounted on two posts.

Testimonials

Mr Morgan, Headmaster of Penguelan Primary School, said:

“The verification process is quick and simple. Technology moves so quickly these days, so I'm very happy to see a responsible social network out there that keeps under 18's safer online. I asked the kids this morning for feedback on the site – and they said they all enjoyed using the site regularly...”

Louise Elliott, BBC RADIO WALES said: “I'm worried about my children online, this sounds like a great idea, keep in touch”

Mr Neil Hughes, Pontypridd rugby club said : “this is a great idea and Pontypridd rugby club is happy to verify it's members”

Mrs Lesley Simm, Teaching and Learning Consultant ICT said: “I contacted southwaleskids after reading about it on the BBC website, I'm glad they have launched greatbritishkids as I can use the site as an example of a safer social network in class”
